

PRESS RELEASE

Montrouge, December 07, 2016

PRESS RELEASE

Clarifications

Crédit Agricole takes note of today's decision of the European Commission in the Euribor case.

Crédit Agricole firmly believes that it did not infringe competition law. Accordingly, it will appeal the Commission's decision before the European courts.

Payment of the fine will not affect the 2016 financial statements given the provisions set aside previously.